Please feel free to call or e-mail me with questions, problems or suggestions. I prefer the convenience of e-mail. I will strive to return all calls and e-mails within 24 hours. Please note that although I do maintain an e-mail address with the university, I do not regularly check it. If you need to contact me, please use the address printed above.

Course Objectives: To prepare students for the Law School Admission Test.
To provide guidance on deciding where and how to apply to law school.
To discuss and analyze legal education in the United States and law as a profession.

Course Schedule & Location: This course will meet on Wednesday evenings from 7:00p.m. to 9:30p.m.

Class Structure: Daily class discussion and lecture on assigned problems and handouts.

Required Book(s): 10 Actual, Official LSAT PrepTests Volume V. (PrepTests 62-71)

Book Details:
Publisher: Law School Admission Council
Language: English
Available via www.LSAC.org

Attendance: Attendance is mandatory. You will be allowed a total of four (4) absences. Any absence in excess of four (4) will result in a failing grade for the course, unless good cause is shown. In addition to the foregoing, it is imperative that you attend all four (4) classes devoted to LSAT practice exams. Please be advised that the practice LSAT exams may not be made up. These tests are time-consuming and require careful monitoring to ensure accuracy. Failure to complete a minimum of 3 out of 4 LSAT practice exams will result in a failing grade for this course.

Practice LSAT exams will begin promptly at 7:10 and continue until completed. If you are going to be late, DO NOT interrupt the exam. Please make any arrangements necessary to be on time to these classes.

Grading: This is a 3-hour, pass/fail course. A passing grade requires that the student complete a minimum of 3 out of 4 practice LSAT exams, complete a personal statement and comply with the attendance requirements described above.
Basic Course Syllabus*

Jan. 21, 2015 - LSAT Diagnostic Test #1

Jan. 28, 2015 - Review Practice Test #1

The Application Process - (Obtaining Letters of Recommendation, Application fees and waivers, LSDAS, Admissions to Houston law schools).

Feb. 18, 2015 - Aren’t Games Supposed to be Fun? Introduction to Analytical Reasoning - Identifying structure and Problem solving strategies.

Feb. 25, 2015 - LSAT #2

March 4, 2015 - Analytical Reasoning - The Simple Line & the Multiple Line: Why to use it, when to use it, how to use it.

March 11, 2015 - SPRING BREAK – NO CLASS

March 18, 2015 - Analytical Reasoning - The Matrix, Subsets and Grouping Problems: Why to use them, when to use them, how to use them.

March 25, 2015 - LSAT TEST #3

April 1, 2015 - In class practice sections.

April 8, 2015 - In class practice sections; Turn In Your Personal Statement!

April 15, 2015 - In class practice sections.

April 22, 2015 - In class practice sections.
April 22, 2015 - In class practice sections.

April 29, 2015 - LSAT TEST #4

*Although I intend to follow this schedule, the syllabus is subject to change based on the specific needs of the class. Check your e-mail for updates.