This course reflects a semester long parochial assignment for students who, in the judgment of the faculty, need additional parochial experience. Each student’s assignment will be based on his particular needs.

In the course of this assignment, the student is expected to become a contributing member of the parish community through service and teaching. During the course of the semester, the student will be supervised by his assigned Pastor as well as the Pastoral Year Coordinator.