Directed Readings Project Fall 2016
INST 4392 Horstman
Corruption and Government: Causes, Consequences, and Reform

Phone: 281-961-9069
Email: horstmr@stthom.edu or rhorst6970@aol.com
Office Hours: via email, phone, or by appointment

The first two months of this independent study will focus on “Corruption and Government: Causes, Consequences and Reform,” a textbook by Susan Rose-Ackerman, Professor of Jurisprudence at Yale Law School, and Bonnie J. Palifka, Assistant Professor at Instituto Tecnologico y de Estudios Superiores de Monterrey. We will meet biweekly to discuss what we have read and its application to what we have experienced in and know about developing countries. Before the end of the two month period we will choose a subject, perhaps a specific country, for a more in depth study and application of what we have learned.

Assignment

Student will read “Corruption and Government: Causes, Consequences and Reform” and then write a paper on an agreed subject, applying what we have learned and going more in depth.

Due Date: November 29, 2016

Meetings with Professor - 3:30 PM, Tiller Hall

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Date</th>
<th>Activity</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>August 25</td>
<td>Discuss and agree course content</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>September 6</td>
<td>Chapters 1-2, pp. 3-92</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>September 20</td>
<td>Chapter 3-5, pp. 93-204</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>October 4</td>
<td>Chapters 6-9, pp. 205-315</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>October 18</td>
<td>Chapters 10-12, pp. 316-414</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>November 1</td>
<td>Chapters 13-15 and Conclusion, pp. 415-530</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>November 15</td>
<td>Discuss progress on research and paper</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>November 29</td>
<td>Present paper</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>