1. Course Description

This course presents the nature and purpose of the liturgical homily. The course will provide instruction on the methods and skills necessary for the development of effective homilies. Emphasis will be given to the interplay between Scripture, preacher and assembly. Students will compose and deliver homilies, which will be critically discussed and evaluated by instructor and students.

2. Course Objectives

Course objectives include the following:

- To familiarize the student with official Church documents relative to the homily;
- to offer techniques and methods of homiletical presentation;
- to encourage sound Scriptural exegesis as an indispensable starting point in the preparation of a homily;
- to give students practice in developing and delivering homilies in an atmosphere of support and constructive criticism;
- to enable students to become more proficient at evaluating and learning from their own efforts and those of others in this discipline;
- to familiarize students with resources available for homily preparation;
- to encourage personal reflection on the ministry of preaching.

3. Required Reading

4. Format of Presentation

- class discussion of the texts
- student preaching
- discussion and evaluation of student homilies
5. Requirements and Expectations

Students are expected to

- attend each class meeting;
- complete all reading assignments and actively participate in group discussions;
- deliver homilies,
- evaluate one another honestly

6. Evaluation

Grades for each homily are based upon the following criteria:

- fulfillment of instruction given for assignment;
- adequacy of research, where applicable;
- adequacy/originality of critical and creative thought;
- evaluation of process, content, approach and techniques used in presentation of assigned topics;
- adequacy, clarity and correctness of written and spoken expression.

Course grade will be based on the following:

- homilies delivered in class 90%
- class discussions and feedback on homilies 10%

7. Class Attendance

The University requires certification of the attendance of students to fulfill requirements established by several governmental agencies. To satisfy requirements, it is university policy that attendance will be monitored in all classes. Promptness is expected of students. Habitual lateness, leaving early or missing classes will result in a lower grade.

Also, no computers are to be in use in this class and every seminarian will need to bring either a Bible (New American Bible) or a Lectionary to each class.
